Description of Program

The CARS program works with the Office of Juvenile Affairs to provide counseling services to at-risk youth and their families. Youth referred for services typically are serving on probation as a result of a legal violation. Once referred, the counselor and youth complete an intake/assessment, develop goals for treatment, and begin regular counseling sessions (individual and/or family). Home-based services can be available to those individuals and families with transportation barriers.

Client Eligibility Criteria 11-17 years or in the 6th-12th grade. Referral from OJA is required.
