Description of Program	Through the Foster Care program we seek to recruit, train and retain foster homes for children and youth from birth to 17 years of age. The program will work seamlessly with the existing shelter, counseling and diversion programs, while adding desperately needed components to placement needs for abused and neglected children and youth. The model will strive to find the best match for a child and family, in order to reduce preventable multiple placements of the child, and to wrap the community as well as the agency's professional services around the foster families to provide the emotional, financial, social, and professional support they need to care for some of the most vulnerable among the state's children and youth.
Client Eligibility Criteria	Foster Parents must be at least 21 years old. Single persons, couples, working parents, retired parents, and adults of all different backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
