Description of Program

An emergency shelter for youth ages 7-17, or younger children when ordered by the Court, Office of Juvenile Affairs, or Department of Human Services. All essential needs for the youth are provided while they are in residence at the Shelter. Youth attend school either in the Stillwater Public School system or a school system within the community which is served by PCYS. Residents participate in counseling, other PCYS programs, and the shelter recreation programs, as appropriate.
