Description of Program	The Transitional Living Program strives to provide safe, stable living accommodations and services to qualifying youth. By preparing residents for employment and teaching them to effectively utilize community resources. TLP enables these young people to successfully transition into adulthood and become contributing members of society. TLP offers various learning experiences and training which enables the youth to make positive connections in their community. Each youth has the opportunity to practice basic life skills, establish a record of continuous employment, progress towards educational goals, work towards relieving financial debt, and build a financial cushion for the future.
